Joyner Buys Him for $7,000 and Ther Sells Him Back for $8,000. The paddock at Morris Park was crowded with turfmen at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Auctioneer William Easton put Frank Farrell's horses under the hammer. Just why Farrell decided to sell out nobody seemed able to tell, but when the sale was over the friend of "Big Bill" Devery still owned Blues, Col. Padden and The Musketeer

Serene, was the first of the Farrell horses to be led into the ring Frank Brown, who trains for Senator "Pat" McCarren, started the ball with a bid of $2,500 This was gradually raised until Morris L Hayman, the clubhouse betting commis-sioner, got the colt for $3,100. Farrell shaking his head in evident displeasure at the low

When Blues appeared Mr. Easton explained that the son of Sir Dixon-Bonnie Blue II., who is a full brother to Blue Girl and Blue Ribbon, had won $66,800 in stakes as a two, three and four-year-old. Of this amount $30,780 has been won this year. The first bid was $2,500. But in less than a minute John E. Madden had jumped the figures to $6,500. Then A. J. Joyner bid $7,000 and the colt was

E. Madden had jumped the figures to $6,500. Then A. J. Joyner bid $7,000 and the colt was knocked down to him. A half hour later Joyner sold Blues back to Farrell for $8,000 and the colt ran in the latter's colors in the first race. In explanation, Joyner said:

"I simply bid in Blues for $7,000 on a speculation when I saw that there was a chance to get him at that price. When Mr. Farrell offered me an advance of $1,000 I took it. That's all!"

Col. Padden who was among those carded to be sold was not in the paddock, although his absence was not explained. It was stated that the Musketer was not put up because he is owned by Mrs. Farrell. Joyner was also a bidder for the four-year-old Bonnibert, by Albert—Bonnie Ola, but the colt went to George F. Johnson for $4,500. Joyner got the two-year-old Minotaur, by Eon for $2,600, but Colonist a two-year-old colt by Sir Dixon—La Colonia, was bought for $3,000 by G. Tierney, with whom Farrell had a long confab before the sale. W. Dunker took The Guardsman for $400 and M. J. Daly secured Hesper for $200. The lot, seven head in all, realized $21,000, but as Farrell got Blues back the sale did not amount to much. Joseph E. Widener bought Judge Franklin Stone's Daffo-Down-Dilly for $2,800 and will put him over the jumps. "Father Bill" Daly ran follows:

The thirteenth annual field trials of the National Beagle Club of America will begin on Nov. 3 at Mineola, L. It will also have a sort of interstate aspect this time as Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Con-

Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut. New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania. Ohio, Illinois, Maryland, Virginia, Louisiana and Iowa will be represented. Another good feature of the preparations this year is that there is an abundance of rabbits.

The Pointer Club of America's annual field trials begin on Nev. 6 at Eastport, L. I., and sportsmen who attend will be at liberty to hunt over the qualisection in addition to having the club hospitalities extended to them. The championship stakes, open to the world, will be the main attraction with an entry fee of $5, and the remaining $20 to be paid before the start. Entries for this contest and for the Derby, confined to club members, close on Oct. 15, with C. T. Lewis, 48 Wall street, New York. Place dogs will receive 50, 30 and 20 per cent, of the stakes in addition to the added money of the club and silver trophies.

"WHITEY" LANGDON'S PLUNGE

WINS $16,000 ON THE VICTORY OF EUGENIA BURCH. Former Grand Stand Commissioner Inan Up-to-Date Turfwoman-Spencer Set Down for a Week-Turf Gossip. One of the heaviest winners in the ring at Morris Park yesterday was the new plunger "Whitey" Langdon, Last year Langdon, who formerly conducted a newspaper at Wilmington, Del., was a betting commissioner in the grand stand at local tracks. This spring, starting with a shoe string, he soon accumulated a bank roll of $40,000. Yesterday he fancied Eugenia Burch to win the Nursery Handicap and accordingly backed the filly scross the boards. He got down $1,000 at 10 to 1 straight, $1,000 at 4 to 1 a place and $1,000 at 2 to 1 to show, and won $16,000 to the race. Mrs. L. Curtis, owner of Eugenia Burch, is well up in turf matters. When she saw the falling rain and the track rapidly turning into muddy going, she was inclined to scratch the filly, but James McLaughlin, who trains for her, advised her to let Ben Strome's daughter go to the post. When Eugenia Burch won, Mrs. Curtis was $7,050 richer, as the gross value of the handicap was $8,050 of which $600 went to the second and $400 Burch from Mrs. T. J. Carson for $275. Her colors, "white, black sleeves, cardinal cap." are those of Lord Falmouth. They were used by the late Arthur White in this country. and when the latter died Mrs. Curtis adopted them. Eugenia Burch is considered by many to be the best two-year-old filly of the year.

Last Tuesday she won the second part of to the winner. During the Brighton meeting she won the second part of the Produce Stakes, which was worth about $6,500 to the winner, and the Montauk Stakes, together with several over-night events. At Saratoga Eugenia Burch ran second to Grey Friar in the Albany Handicap. Altogether Mrs. Curtis has won close to $25,000 in stakes and purses this year. After yesterday's race she said that she might start Eugenia Burch in the Champagne Stakes next Saturday if the filly was not asked to pick up too much weight, or she might wait for the White Plains

Handicap. The Nursery Handicap was first run it 1877. Among the prominent winners were Duke of Magenta, Sensation, Hopeful, Firenze, King Eric, Yorkville Belle, Runyon, Ben Brush, Ethelbert, King's Courier, Bellario and King Hanover, who won last year. The race has been run at Morris Park since 1890. The Champion Steeplechase was inaugurated in 1899, when J. W. Colt's Van Ship was victorious. In 1900 H. W. Smith's The Cad, now driven to a buggy by his owner, took the rich prize, while last year Mr. Chamblet's Zinziber was triumphant. Zinziber holds the best record for the race and track, Monohan, who was thrown by Judge carried to the paddock unconscious. When Phillips in the steeplechase yesterday, was carried to the paddock unconscious. When he came to and had his head done up in bandages, he put on his street clothes and mingled with the crowd on the lawn, as if nothing had happened. Monohan is the boy who jumped into Philma Paxton's saddle after she had thrown her rider down at Gravesend recently and rode her out for third money successfully.

Mr. Page, who rode Self Protection so cleverly yesterday, is undoubtedly the best gentleman rider in America. He has ridden some fine races this year, but yesterday's performance (apped the climax F. Ambrose Clark, also an expert rider, intended to have the mount on his gelding Rowdy in yesterday's race, but at the last moment gave way to Barry. Some persons were inclined to censure Ray for not putting up a stronger finish on Fulminate, who was beaten out of the money in the last lew strides. But Ray said afterward that Fulminate was on the point of falling from sheer exhaustion and that if he had punished him the son of Rayon d'or might have broken down.

The Hunter Handicap is an old 'standby. It was first run in 1860 at Jerome Park at a mile and three-quarters, but in 1890 it was run at Morris Park, the better known winners won in 2007. Since then the race has been run at Morris Park, the better known winners being Yorkville Belle, La Diva, Beldimere, Belmar, Souffle, Cleophus, Kenmore Queen, The Rose, Oncek Queen and Morningside, last year's winner. Flora Pomona, who ran in the Hunter vesterday, carried the colors of John E. Madden for the first time. She The Rose, Oneck Queen and Morningside, last year's winner. Flora Pomona, who ran in the Hunter vesterday, carried the colors of John E. Madden for the first time. She was heavily played, too. Rossignel, the winner, who showed a stunning form reversal, is trained by James McLaughlin, who also scored with Eugenia Burch.

While at the post for the first race yesterday Blues not only kicked up trouble, but also threw Jack Martin. Eleven horses were cratched out of this event.

Henry Spencer, "the ice man," up to yesterday had not ridden a winner since his return from England in the early summer. He had the mount on Eugenia Burch and was so determined to break his losing streak that he took several deliberate rules at the barrier, for which Starter Pettingill put him on the ground for one week. Just after he had finished selling the horses in the paddock before the races yesterday, Auctioneer William Easton was seized with an attack of vertigo and became unconscious. He was brought around all right, however, in a short time. Mr. Easton has not been himself since the Reed sale at Sheepshead Bay last Monday, when he complained of illness. He has always enjoyed robust health, and his friends say that his trouble is only temporary.

The Pepper Stable has disposed of King is only temporary.

In the last race yesterday Par Excellence ran in the name of Albert Simons. In this event the Western contingent bet a ton of money on J. B. Resspess's Stx Shooter, backing him down from 6 to 1 to fours. The colt began slowly and was last to the turn, where he made up a lot of ground and was rapidly overhauling the leaders at the end. Big money was taken out of the ring on Zoroaster's victory, John A. Drake, it was said, being among those who cashed.

Among the notables at the track yesterday were Hugh J. Grant. Timothy D. Sullivan, P. H. McCarren, John B. Sexton, R. C. Hooper, J. W. Colt, Joseph E. Widener, F. Ambrose Clark, J. G. Follansbee, August Belmont, S. S. Brown, F. R. Hitchcock, H. T. Oxnard, P. J. Dwyer, Milton Young, Foxhall Keene, Pierre Lordilard, R. T. Wilson, Jr. L. V. Bell, J. Grant Lyman, Col. James E. Pepper, Patrick Keenan, Frank McKee, Robert Hilliard, James Galway and many others. In spite of the rain half a dozen tally ho coaches and countless automobiles made the trip from the city.

Turner was three pounds overweight, so that Judith Campbell carried 117 pounds in the Nursery yesterday instead of 114. He was able to make 116 for Flora Pomona in the next race.

Martin got three mounts in the money yesterday, with two each for Odom, Shea and L. Smith.

Hermis was scratched out of the last race because of the mud. John A. Drake's Wyeth was also withdrawn late in the afternoon for the same reason. In all there were twenty-six scratches.

Jockey John Bullman yesterday signed a contract to ride next season from the six scratches.

Reid's alleys in Church street were crowded yesterday afternoon by members and followers of the Windesale Drug Trade Association to witness the opening games of the tenth annual tournament. Prior to the bowling Harry Barnes, president of the association, made an address. The Johnson & Johnson team, winners of the first prize last season, made a good beginning, defeating both opposing Byes.

Son of Cuba's President a Columbia Athlete. José Estrada Palma, son of President Painta of the Cuban Republic, is one of the most promising candidates for the Columbia cross country team. He is a second year student in the Columbia law school and has student in the Columbia law school and has the reputation of being a plucky runner.
Thirty other candidates are now at work with Trainer Hjertberg and Capt. Scharps, a larger number than have ever before been interested in cross-country work at Columbia. The best of the new men are young Palma and Ellwood Smith from the Newburgh Academy.
Work was begun yesterday in spreading cinders on the new South Field running track for preliminary cross-country practice.

Lacrosse.

The annual meeting of the lacrosse association at Columbia University was held yester-day to formulate plans for the year and to elect day to formulate plans for the year and to elect officers. E. J. Reed, '04, college, was chosen president; Leonard Kebler, '04, science, is the new team manager with Norman S. Goldberger, '04 college, as his assistant. The players selected H. L. Benjamin, '04, college, an attack man on last year's 'Varsity as captain for the coming season. Serious fall practice will be introduced this year.

BOWLING RECORDS AND GAMES. NEWS OF THE HARNESS HORSES. Geers's Remarkable Season-Smathers

Does Best Among Local Owners.

At the eleventh hour yesterday the rain necessitated a postponement of the amateur contests among members of the New York Driving Club at the Empire City track intil next Thursday. Charles C. Lloyd, Alonzo C. Maynard, Frederick Dietz. Thomas Floyd-Jones, and others sat in the big reception hall talking it over as the rain came town. The death of old Onward, 2:25% half brother to Director, 2:17, on Friday was talked of and it seems astonishing how few realized that he was 27 years old. O. F. C was his first 2:30 trotter, and, for many seasons, breeders asked one another why Col. Pepper's grandly bred stallion was not a better speed sire. To-day he is represented by about 70 at both gaits and many at the 2:10 end of the list as well. His death leaves Alcantara and Jay Bird the oldest sons of George Wilkes probably, with Baron Wilkes, 2:18, the youngest. Director, the son of Dictator and Dolly, is alive, and in an obscure section of Pennsylvania doing stud service. Jay Bird soon passes to a new owner, as does old Red Wilkes, yet another veteran by the "Simmons Pony" as George Wilkes was styled because of his stature. Rarely do two as prominent sires as Onward and Adbell die on successive days. The turf loses brilliant progenitors in both.

Ed Geers's remarkable season was a topic of conversation at the clubhouse yesterday He won $21,050 with Direct Hal, 2:0414, with Lexington and Memphis to be added; $4,350 with The Monk, 2.05%; $5,250 with Zephyr, 2:11; $3,600 with Prince of Orange, 2:07%, ex-No. 2, 72; Tompkins Square Team No. 3, 259; Buffalo

No. 2, 72; Tompkins Square Team No. 3, 259; Buffalo

Team No. 3 229.

GANS VS. M.PARTLAND. Champtonship Bout to Be Decided at Fort Erle To-morrow Night.

Local sports are much interested in the he world between Joe Gans and Kid McPart Erie to-morrow night. The men are to meet at 135 pounds for twenty rounds. This will at 135 pounds for twenty rounds. This will be their fourth nail. Gans took the first contest, while the next two were draws. McPartland a few years ago was rated as a mighty elever lightweight, and has a record a yard long. Put he has not improved as Gans has and on this score his frends are not too confident of his chances. In good form McPartland can hold his own against the best of them in his division. He has a left hand, which no boxer, with the exception of Gans, has been able to avoid. It is a peculiar punch and the Kid carries all his force behind it. McPartland in the past has defeated most all of his opponents with this hand. Gans is in fine condition and expects to have no trouble in scoring a decisive victory this time. A preliminary bout of ten rounds between Warren Zurbeck of Buffalo and Herman Miller of Baltimore will precede the stellar event. It is for ten rounds.

Peter Maher feels aggrieved over what he terms unfair treatment in his recent bout with Jack O'Brien at Philadelphia. Peter with Jack O'Brien at Philadelphia. Peter Lowery, who is Maher's manager, writes as follows to THE SUN.

"I wish to say something regarding Maher's late fight with Jack O'Brien to set at rest many reports that Maher was outclassed in that mill. The papers of Philadelphia gave Peter all the worst of it, when all things considered, Maher was entitled to the verdict. O'Brien butted him three times with his head and it did not look accidental to me at that. We are after another match and O'Brien has pomised to give us one soon. The sooner the better. Maher is keeping in great shape, better, in fact, than he has for years, and when they meet again I am more confident than ever Maher will stop him in six rounds. They will fight again some time in November." SPORTSMEN'S GOODS.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES.

The Richness of Good Leather

> Is just as apparent in the smaller items of a personal outfit as in harness and saddles of quality. The difference between good leather and poor leather, between the essential smartness of the CROSS goods and mediocrity, is quickly noted.

The CROSS Tab Fob and Monogram Adds a consciousness of presenting in a modest but generally observed way, one of the coveted touches of finish which differentiate the correctly appareled modish man from the one who is not particular. Made of black or BROUGHAMS. brown pigskin-handsewn-monogram mounted.

$3.00 up.

English Pigskin Card Cases

Are more respectable from the beginning than the ordinary pasted card case. They grow constantly more respectable, instead of shabby, gradually assuming a mahogany polish. Handsewn throughout. Made from vest pocket up to banknote or wallet sizes.

85 cents up.

Imported Riding Crops and Whips

Men and women riders, with their trim, spirited mounts, regard the spirit and dash of their riding accoutrements as passports in the camaraderie of equestrianship. CROSS Crops and Whips are not hobbies -they are necessities. Newly imported ones are made of natural woods and whalebone covered with catgut and leather-mounted with silver, horn, solid gold, gun metal and handsomely carved ivory handles.

Cross English Riding Saddles

Have for many seasons held the highest place in the esteem of all metropolitan men and women riders and the better class of riders in the country. They are favored by the hunt clubs and those who ride strenuously, as well as by the park equestrian. Made of pigskin, best kersey lining, hand-forged steel stirrups, worsted Fitzwilliam girths, finest stirrup leathers. The prices are inviting.
